Dear Hal:

The enclosed shocked me. The letter is my 4th re-write... the first three were absolutely livid! I'll let you know what response (if any). If there is none within a reasonable time, I will copy in the publisher and at the same time send copies to such as the National News Council, ANPA and Pen & Quill and whatever else I can think of...disgusting.

Thanks for your thought on "abuse of court processes" re: our delay here - but - last time I discussed something similar with our attorney he said (in essence) that all appeals being filed were in fact just part of the normal procedure allowed them under existing law and therefore was not a process abuse. However, I am going to take it up again with him.

Best
